Gov. Knott has ordered the State Guard into camp at Louisville for seven days, beginning the 15th of August.

Thurgood entered the residence of Mr. Chas. Bear, Sunday night last, and relieved his pocket of $35 in currency.

The Congressional Yecador, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is a man of opinion that Cleveland will get ninety per cent of the German vote.

The 4th Annual Meeting of the Sanitary Council of Kentucky, will be held at Elizabethtown, Ky., 1st and 2nd, 1894.

Of 37 teachers examined in Graves county only 15 secured certificates and only one of those was first class.

Mr. C. N. Briggance and Miss Addie Barney, were married, on Thursday of this week. Success and happiness attend them.

Motto for Fulton county Road overseers.

"Get there, where ever worked before and then work there."

Remember, that no matter how small, all paying, make certain that the money is yours.

The election passed off quietly and harmoniously Monday, and to the satisfaction of the majority, and to the vote of the minority.

The victory shows gracefully.

Overseers would do well to read the advertisement in this paper from the jail commissaries. Some one will get a job that will pay reasonable wages.

The road law carried handsomely in the Hickman, Glasgow and Jordan precincts, but failed in the Fulton, Lexington, Sassafras, Ridge and Madison Road precincts.

Mr. Dick Pich, an old resident of this county, and for many years a citizen of Hickman, is dead. He was stricken with paralysis and lived only a few days after death.

"Kid Nash," an Onion county boy, convicted of being conceited in a killing at Malden, Mo., died in the Missouri penitentiary.

Consumption, says the Malden Clipper.

The Southern Exposition is announced to open August 12 and close October 23. The Cincinnati Industrial Exposition opens September 3, and closes in October.

The Presidential campaign has only commenced to heat. In September and October it will be hotter a time like in nearly all the States. Poor Kentucky will scarcely have a ripple of excitement.

In Hickman county, Mr. R. H. Johnson was re-elected Sheriff over Samuel B. Short. Mr. Johnson, Elder Willis White re-elected School Commissioner; and the new road law defeated and gave the Hickman County Bill.

"I tell you Bill no girl can fool me. If I call on a girl and she doesn't say yes, and she says she wants me to leave, and don't make hands with me when I leave, and don't ask me to call again, and very seldom I ever call back again to see her."

Hon. C. M. Vaughan, State Senator from this District, died at his home in Hickman County, Friday last. He had held many places of public trust and confidence, sheriff, member of the Legislature, State Senator, &c., and had always proven himself faithful, energetic and efficient.

The per capita for 1884 is $1.10 for white and colored children alike. After the liberal provision of the Legislature last winter, it was expected to be higher than this, but the necessity of equipping the colored and the white militia, and the increase of the number of school children in the State, has limited it to the sum above named.

Mrs. R. D. Thompson, formerly of our town but now a resident of Hickman, Kentucky, arrived last Monday night on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Annie Oliver. Mrs. T. is not looking so well as she has lately been, and her considerable sickness in the locality of Hickman. We hope her visit may be a pleasant one and that a few breaths of our west prairie atmosphere will fully restore her health—Malden Clipper.

Mr. Thomas V. Wallace was elected city Marshal at the election Monday, defeating his competitors by handsome majorities. We are led to believe that he will make an excellent officer, and should have the support of all good citizens in the discharge of his duties. This is an important office so far as the peace, good order and well being of the town is concerned, and more than one Marshal has felt the lack of proper support from the business men and general citizens.
